

Who should attend:

Adults working with young people in out of school hours, including teachers, library & museum staff, youth workers, learning mentors and classroom assistants.

Learning objectives & course content:

- Understand how to structure SLD learning activities
- Develop a range of activities that could be used on a SLD
- Understand the role of the Learning Team in delivering the activities
- Understand how SLD learning can contribute to your organisations development plans
- What is a Super Learning Day and why have one?
- How to run a SLD in your school/organisation
- Example workshop ideas focused on learning to learn or a curriculum theme

Duration: 1 day

Price: £1500 for a 1 day course for 15 people (£100pp)

Location: Delivered at your site or in partnership with others

University of the First Age
St.Paul's Cottages
59/60 Water Street
The Jewellery Quarter
Birmingham B3 1EP

☎ 0121 212 9838
☎ 0121 212 9585
✉ ufa@ufa.org.uk
🌐 www.ufa.org.uk

To book training or direct delivery, please contact us.

Designed and produced in-house at The University of the First Age.
Registered Charity No. 1061308

Delivering activities for young people:

Activity Training Courses - Super Learning Days

'I am astounded by the impact of UFA on some of the young people I work with. They have much more confidence and are engaging and enjoying their learning'

www.ufa.org.uk